PRINCIPAL'S REPORT MRS. LIVEZEY – PARENT TEACHER CONFERENCES, SPECIAL EDUCATION

Mrs. Livezey talked about how well parent-teacher conferences went. Mrs. Livezey mentioned the 5th and 6th grade had student lead conferences. Ally Livezey, a 6th grade student at NM, presented the board what she talked about at her own student lead conference. Ally talked about her science fair project and goals that she is working on improving.

Mrs. Livezey talked about the increase in special need students at the elementary building. She mentioned if more students have Individualized Education Program (IEP) she might look into hiring another special education teacher.

MR. RAY – STUDENT LED CONFERENCES, APPRENTICESHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Mr. Ray mentioned the student lead conference went very well. The attendance for parents attending parent teacher's conference increased. At the student lead conference, the advisee (NM HS teacher), student and parents met to talk about the artifacts that the student collected in their personal folder. Macy Moore, a sophomore student at NM, along with her parents Janine and Mark Moore gave the board a mock demonstration of what her student lead conference looked like at the high school. Macy talked about her goals, what she was proud of and what she would like to work on.

Mr. Ray talked about the apprenticeship program he presented with Mr. Groom and Caleb Rook from Kelderman Manufacturing.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT SURVEY

Tabled until the next board meeting.

FOOTBALL ADVISORY MEETING

Mrs. Livezey plans to have a football advisory meeting with selected groups within the North Mahaska community. This advisory meeting will be facilitated by Anne Morgan with the Great Prairie AEA. The advisory group will be working on a plan for the 2019 football season.

COMMUNICATION IMPROVEMENT

Mrs. Livezey has been working with our website designer at Fierce Creative to improve and increase communication for anyone viewing the school website.

INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT LEVY

Mrs. Livezey and Ms. Quang have been working on the renewal for the board approved instructional support levy. The current instructional support levy will sunset in the fiscal year 2020 and must be board approved every 5 years. The instructional support levy has helped the school maintain present educational programs. The public hearing will be published in the Sun.
